

Strengths and weaknesses of e-flip model

Strengths	Weaknesses
Allows creativity	Students can easily switch to games or videos for entertainment.
Provides interaction. It is collaborative	Attendance.
Enhances students motivation	Student's lack of motivation.
Heightens a sense of responsibility	Student's lack of responsibility of their own learning
Affords for being responsible of your own learning	Isolation
Useful model for learning in times of pandemic, emergencies, etc.	Over exposure to screens
Student's learn at their own pace	Limited socialization
Student's comprehension can be tracked	More difficulty in getting students engaged than in face to face learning.
Feedback	Students' attention span is limited and may lose focus when faced with long videos/texts...
Enhances the students' and teachers' digital skills
Provides a better preparation for the labor market

